CONVOCATION CEREMONY

OCTOBER 28–29, 2026

YORKVILLE UNIVERSITY

TODAY'S CEREMONY

Thank you for attending Yorkville University's Fall 2026 Convocation. The ceremony is expected to last approximately two hours. We kindly ask that you stay in your seat for the duration of the ceremony and keep noise to a minimum, except when cheering for the graduates.

Each graduate will be called up on stage to be recognized and have a picture taken with Dr. Julia Christensen Hughes, President & Vice Chancellor of Yorkville University and Dr. Tamara Dalrymple, Dean of Behavioural Sciences. Graduates are then expected to return to their seats.

Following the ceremony, there will be a light reception, where you will have the opportunity to socialize with your fellow graduates, faculty, family members, and friends.

Professional photos taken during the ceremony will be shared with you at a later date via email. The platform party will also be available for photos with family following the ceremony.

Please remember to celebrate this special day with us on social media by tagging @yorkvilleu.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The wearing of academic regalia is a tradition that has persisted from the Middle Ages, derived from the monasteries and wearing of clerical robes, and continued in a new way as universities were founded. The degree hood was originally part of the monk's habit and eventually, the hood became separate from the gown, variegated in colour, and emblematic of fields of study, degrees, and universities.

For the mortarboard, as a Master's graduate, please leave your tassel to the right during the ceremony and for photographs. Graduates are to wear the appropriate gown and hood for their degree or diploma.

YOLLANDA ZHANG

MASTER OF ARTS IN COUNSELLING PSYCHOLOGY GRADUATE

Yollanda Zhang is a Registered Psychotherapist (Qualifying), author, keynote speaker, and mental health advocate.

Her path to psychotherapy has been anything but linear. Originally trained as an engineer, Yollanda later became a high school teacher, entrepreneur, nonprofit founder, and public speaker before returning to a dream she had held since adolescence: becoming a therapist.

Drawing from both clinical training and more than 25 years of lived experience with bipolar disorder, Yollanda is passionate about helping others find hope in experiences they may once have viewed only as sources of shame.

She is featured in Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre's Out of Darkness documentary series and is the author of Dear Younger Me: Becoming the Hero I Needed, forthcoming from Dundurn Press in May 2027. Her writing on mental health has received a Gold Award from the Digital Health Awards.

Yollanda is also the founder of Girl. Strong., a nonprofit initiative that has helped thousands of young people develop confidence and life skills. She now works with clients through her private psychotherapy practice in the Greater Toronto Area.

ABOUT YORKVILLE UNIVERSITY

Yorkville University began with a bold vision: to offer flexible, rigorous, and career-focused programs that transform lives.

Since 2004, Yorkville University has expanded to campuses across Canada, offering both online and on-campus programs.

Our graduates have advanced their careers through programs in the behavioural sciences, social sciences, business, design and the creative arts. Yorkville University's student-centred, practitioner-oriented approach equips graduates with skills that employers value, making us one of Canada's largest private universities.
